The pilgrim way
Rev Steve Rollins

As I write this on 17th March we are joining our Celtic cousins across the water and worldwide in celebrating their patron saint. Patricius, as he styled himself, befitting a Late Roman Briton – Padraig to the Irish, Padrig or Patrick to us – is known as the Apostle of Ireland. Born in what is now England, or Scotland, or even Wales, he is truly a British saint. The Irish connection is that he was captured by Irish pirates and enslaved there, escaped after six years, only to return there eventually as a Christian missionary. The story of his redemption, the colour green and the shamrock speak to us of Spring, celebration of Easter and beyond that to the Trinity.

We are still making our pilgrim way through Lent, entering Passiontide, Palm Sunday and Holy Week, culminating in the great Easter Triduum starting on the evening of Maundy Thursday, running through Good Friday into Holy Saturday and on to the Easter Vigil, the Dawn Service and Easter morning. Some or all of these will be offered in our churches and chapels across Bro Ystumanner and in open air services too. An innovation this year is the Maundy Thursday Watch of Prayer in the St Cadfan's glass room – open to all from 8:30pm. There are the United Good Friday processions in Aberdyfi and Tywyn, and Stations at Stations takes place on the Talyllyn railway later that day with an 'ecumenical' team, as it has done for some years now – this year, starting at 4pm and finishing mid evening led by Rev Phil Jump, North West Baptist Association Regional Minister. The Dawn service on Tywyn beach and promenade is also ecumenical, and most churches aim to have their own Easter Day service to greet the Risen Christ.

Part of our Lenten pilgrim progress has been the ecumenical Pilgrimage course – seven sessions held in Tywyn churches and chapels and this year actually finishing in Easter week (13th April in St Cadfan's). As I write we've just had the third session in the Baptist church and next week will be hosted by the Catholic Church in St Cadfan's. It has been so good to get together to explore each other's traditions and churchmanship. The last time we had anything similar was March 2020, when we were using materials based on the book of Jonah. You may remember that something happened (I don't know if there was a Jonah among us), and we had to abandon ship in the middle of the month. We never completed the course and we haven't really managed to get back together since.

So it's been doubly good to do exactly that, and I'm sure I'm not the only one who feels doubly blessed as a result of our pilgrimage to each other's churches. Our Good Friday broken bodies have been resurrected and we are once again Easter people. We have plans to celebrate this with the United Service on Tywyn Seafront at the end of July, followed by Worship on the Wharf at Aberdyfi on Sunday evenings in August. I feel sure St Patrick would have approved.

See you at some of these? I wish you a joyous and blessed Easter.

God Bless. – Rev Dr Steve Rollins

The deadline for the May newsletter will be
Monday 17th April

An Easter Blessing

May the celebration of resurrected life bring new hope to your being.

May the victory over earthly death turn your eyes to the promises of heaven.

May the empty tomb help you to leave your sorrows at the foot of the cross, so that God's hope, promises, love and forgiveness reign in your life forever.

Amen.

Around Bro Ystumanner

United Lent Group 2023 – Pilgrimage / Pererindod

Thursdays 10.30 am – 12 noon

(Refreshments from 10.15 am)

March 30th	Living with Uncertainty	Capel Ebeneser
April 6th	Sacred Encounter	Tywyn Baptist Church
April 13th	Pilgrim Living	St Cadfan's Church

We have had a sizeable group (20 or more) from the different churches meeting together each week to explore the idea of pilgrimage, whether physical or spiritual (or both!), as a way of drawing us closer to God and to each other. It has been lovely to have different people leading the groups in a variety of ways, providing a very enriching experience for us all. We continue to meet, up to and after Easter, as detailed above. You do not need to have been to previous sessions, so newcomers are still welcome.

We are using the Lent course from Churches Together in Britain and Ireland originally published in 2016, which uses reflections and images from a variety of sources to encourage conversation, which they certainly have done. Copies of the reflections are provided at each session, but for those who would like their own copy, they are available in the form of a pack of booklets available in Welsh (£5.00) or English (£10.00) through the ctbi website (<https://ctbi.org.uk/lent-2016/>) (or ask Rev. Ruth to order you a pack). The booklets and resources can also be viewed on-line. Even if you are unable to join us for the Lent group, the reflections can be used by individuals to reflect on their own spiritual journey at any time.

The Gethsemane Watch

Watching – Waiting - Praying

Following the Maundy Thursday liturgy, many congregations hold a “Watch of Prayer”. This Maundy Thursday, April 6th from 8.30pm, this will be happening in our Ministry Area, in St Cadfan’s glass reading room. (It will be heated.) Other churches from the surrounding area have been invited too.

For some people, The Gethsemane Watch may seem daunting but it does present us with a superb opportunity to teach faithfulness in prayer and discipleship.

“Could you not keep awake one hour?” were the words of reproach from Jesus to his hapless followers in that first Gethsemane. Since then, disciples of subsequent generations have attempted to do better in some small way, to make up for what was lacking in the first bunch.

This isn’t meant to be easy or routine. It is a time of conversation with God, a time to reflect with God, a time to remember...

While it may be a challenge, it can be a wonder-filled, grace-filled blessing.

Remember the date: April 6th from 8.30pm.

Stay for as long as you wish or as little as you wish.

Relax, Reflect and Remember with God. – Fiona Covington-Mann

Eco Ystumanner

For the time being, we are looking at using the new Carbon Footprint Tool approved by the Church in Wales to measure our effectiveness in St Cadfan's. A Rocha's Eco tip this month centres on walking or cycling more, as an alternative to using the car, now the weather is (we hope) improving. – Max Birchenough

Croeso Dydd Mercher – Welcome Wednesdays

Warmer Winter Wednesdays has been running since early November and is becoming increasingly popular. The average weekly attendance has risen from 14 before Christmas to 18 in recent weeks. The scheme has been generously supported by a number of donations and we have recently received a sizeable grant from North Wales PACT (Police and Community Trust) which will enable us to carry on after Easter. We are grateful for all this support which acknowledges the value of the scheme. We are also very grateful to Karen, our Co-op Member Pioneer, and to Stella who have both kept us supplied with refreshment supplies and delicious baking, and of course to our own team of helpers who make it happen every week.

Warmer Winter Wednesdays is taking a two-week break over Easter but will return on 19th April with a new name: Croeso Dydd Mercher – Welcome Wednesdays and will continue through the Spring and early Summer until the holiday season starts.

Croeso cynnes i bawb! A warm welcome for everyone! - Paul Inman

Congratulations on your 50th birthday, Clive!

On April 8th, Warmer Winter Wednesdays saw a greater gathering than usual for a party to celebrate Clive Edward's 50th birthday. A regular member of St Cadfan's Church, and helper and attender at our Warmer Winter Wednesdays, Clive was presented with an amazing three-tier lemon cake made by Linda Birchenough, and some vouchers for the Tallyllyn Railway from his Church family and friends.

Clive has written the following for the newsletter:

'Thank you for my birthday cards and presents and food. From Clive Edwards'

Ministry Area Council Annual Meeting

Tuesday 25th April

7.00 pm, St Cadfan's Church, Tywyn

Everyone is welcome to come to our Ministry Area Council Annual Meeting. It is an opportunity to review what has happened over the last year and give thanks for all those who have contributed in so many ways to the ministry and mission of our churches. We will also elect and appoint people to various roles across the Ministry Area and our churches for the coming year. Your presence and support is greatly appreciated.

Crafts for Giving

Monday 17th April

PLEASE NOTE LATER DATE!

2.00-4.00 pm in St Cadfan's Church, Tywyn

Due to the Easter Monday Bank Holiday, we are moving Crafts for Giving in April to the third Monday of the month. Enjoy your Bank Holiday and then come along on April 17th for a cuppa and a catch-up.

We have received a lovely email from Mission to Seafarers thanking us for the 22 hats and 5 scarves that we were able to send them recently, saying how much the seafarers appreciated them, especially in the weather we have been having. We have also heard that they have been delivering Fish and Chip jumpers to Turkey and Syria following the earthquakes there. In addition, we have thank you cards from various individuals who have received prayer shawls or lap blankets. Thank you to everyone who contributes!

Prayer shawls, Fish and Chip jumpers, and scarves and hats for seafarers are some of the things we make, bless at our monthly meetings, and give away. Everyone is welcome to come along or make things at home. If you require patterns or more information, or know of someone who would appreciate the gift of a prayer shawl or lap blanket, please contact Mrs Sue Whitehouse (01654 712 275) or Rev. Ruth Hansford (01654 710 255).

No Crafts for Giving in May

Due to a plethora of Bank Holidays and the Coronation weekend, we have decided there will be NO Crafts for Giving in May, but do keep on knitting!!!

Rainbow of Angels

If you would like a handcrafted angel in memory of someone who has died, do please contact Rev Ruth (01654 710255; ruthhansford@esgobaethbangor.net) with the name of the person, and the names and addresses of those who would like an angel.

Monthly Prayer Walk

Thursday 20th March 2023

A walk along Fairbourne sea-front

10.00 am Meeting at the car park opposite Penrhyn Bar & Grill

In March we enjoyed a lovely lunch in Toast on Tywyn High Street after the Lent group and began thinking about those we think of as family in different ways. Our walk included a stop at St Cadfan's Church for reflection, prayer, and discussion. We then headed off down Gwalia and towards Broadwater, planning for a short walk due to weather prospects and desire of those in the group. The beginnings of rain led to it being a bit shorter than we thought, but we'd been blessed with the sight of a heron and lots of Canada geese enjoying the large puddles in the fields. A little blast of fresh air and refreshing company on a rainy day.

April will be our last shorter walk stopping with lunch. We will begin at the car park opposite Penrhyn Bar and Grill and walk along the seafront to the end of the railway and the river before returning for lunch at Penrhyn Bar and Grill. We will be reflecting on the theme of Resurrection and New Life. We will stop periodically to hear a poem or a Bible reading and say some prayers, but there is no requirement to pray yourself unless you would like to. If you need a lift, do please get in touch with Rev. Ruth (01654 710 255). Everyone is welcome!

Condolences

It was with shock and sadness that we heard of the sudden deaths of Father Shaji, the Roman Catholic priest for the congregations of St David's, Tywyn and St Mair, Machynlleth on Thursday 23rd March, and Justin Adams, the son of our retired clergy, Revs Nigel and Celia Adams on Friday 24th March. We commend them into God's care, and hold their families, friends, and colleagues in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. – Rev. Ruth

Looking Forward to the Coronation of King Charles III

The Coronation of King Charles III will take place on Saturday 6th May at Westminster Abbey. To mark this occasion, the Church of England has compiled a series of Daily Prayers. Running from Easter Day (April 9th) to Coronation Day, they provide a daily theme, reading and reflection:

- to pray for the King, our nation and the world
- explore the symbolism of the Coronation service
- reflect on Jesus, the Servant King.

The booklets can be ordered from Church House Publishing via the following link (<https://www.chpublishing.co.uk/coronation>). They cost £1.50 for a single copy, or £1.25 each if you order a pack of 10. Rev. Ruth can order copies for those who would like them.

In addition to the coverage on the TV on the Saturday for those who want to watch it, we are planning to have A Service of Thanksgiving in our churches on Sunday 7th May for those who would like to take this opportunity to come together to praise God, and pray for the King, and those in leadership roles in the United Kingdom and beyond.

St Cadfan's are having a Coronation Coffee Morning on 8th May (in addition to the Coffee Mornings on May Day and at the end of May), so do come along to raise a panad.

The Prayer from Easter Sunday:

Eternal God and Father, you create and redeem us by the power of your love;
guide and strengthen us by your Spirit,
that we may give ourselves in love and service
to one another and to you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

News from the Churches

Aberdyfi

A replacement heater fitted in the nave: During the last congregational meeting at St Peter's on 30th September 2022, it was reported that one of the church heaters had failed completely and the cost of a replacement unit was quoted as £2200.

It was decided that this revised figure could not be covered from existing church funds and a proposal was put to the committee that a fund for the would be started to raise the necessary money for a replacement.

The members of the congregation rose to the challenge magnificently and by the end of the year had raised a total of £965.

A suggestion was made that the church could also apply for a grant from the Aberdyfi Advertising and Improvements Committee (AAIC) to help cover the shortfall.

A request to the AAIC resulted in a very generous grant of £1235 which meant that St Peter's had sufficient funds to order a replacement unit.

A new heater has now been fitted in the church that has been a godsend for the congregation over the last few weeks of cold winter weather.

The members of the St Peter's committee and the whole congregation would like to express their sincere gratitude to all those who helped raise the necessary money but particularly to the AAIC for their very generous and invaluable help with this project that has made the church very much more comfortable for everyone.

Obituary: The funeral of Frank Brian Willets Mole (Brian) who died on 30th January aged 90 was held on Wednesday 15th February at 11am. The service was attended by a large congregation and officiated by Reverend Christina ten Wolde. Our prayers and condolences are with the family and friends of the deceased.

Brian was a much loved and respected member of the community who during his time in Aberdyfi was totally committed to help the village and its inhabitants. Over the years, Brian had been a councillor, church warden, school governor, and a dedicated member of the Aberdyfi Players. He was a true gentleman who spent his life helping and supporting the local community whenever he could. Brian was also a much valued member of St Peter's Church. He set up the services every week and organised the Remembrance Day services for many years.

Brian will be greatly missed by all those who knew him. - Maciek Wood-Kazmar

The Archangels Gabriel and Michael gathered with 25 others for a Mothering Sunday Celebration to give thanks for all those who love and care for us. Despite all their efforts at trying to figure out how to make an extra-stretchy, all-seeing, all-doing mother, Archangel Gabriel ended up with the task of returning to God to tell him that it was up to him to do it, as it was way too complicated! A special thank you to Brendan and Krysty Hansford for enabling the special visit. Thank you also to all those who contributed to the service: playing the organ, reading, doing the prayers, and making posies of daffodils to give out; as well as to those who cleaned and provided refreshments, including a very much enjoyed Simnel cake. It was lovely to have so many there and we look forward to our Easter Sunday Communion at 3 pm on April 9th followed by an Easter Egg hunt in the churchyard. Everyone is welcome!

Fairbourne

I must confess that painting the church fence and tidying up is taking longer than anticipated!

The baptisms (yes, plural) were a joy and it is humbling to both bring people to baptism and to baptise.

The church will be open most Tuesdays and Fridays for visiting and private prayer between 8am-4pm.

As always, we seek to offer pastoral care for everyone, not only in our churches but also in our communities, If you would like a pastoral visit or Home Communion please contact me.

Also please contact me if you would like prayers included in our services on a Sunday.

Finally, we offer our prayers to those who are in need, the sick, the bereaved and the departed.. – Rev George Williams

After hearing the sad news about the earthquake in Turkey and Syria we gave our Sunday collection towards the disaster fund which, together with some donations from the village, meant we were able to donate £100 to the fund.

Arrangements are being made for serving refreshments at the Spring Bank Holiday “Duck Race” and we have also started preparing for the Summer Fete. As we are all getting older, we hope that many younger people will volunteer to come and help. – Ann Hackney

Pennal

We move on quietly through the winter months, enjoying our regular gatherings on Sundays, planning ahead for Easter and the Spring, and working on upkeep and care and maintenance.

It is good to welcome the Dyfi Singers back for their weekly practice (still room for any voices to join us on Monday evenings) and we look forward to Ysgol Pennal having their annual Palm service; and then the return of Richard Lingard to play the organ at the Good Friday and Easter services.

The village is delighted to see Glan yr Afon - The Riverside - getting back into action with a new manager and new chef starting full time in April. The opening of a farm shop in the pub garden will be of tremendous value to us all.

And the line of dancing daffodils on the road into the village bring joy to all who pass through and who live here. - Hugh Ramsbotham

Tywyn

We would like to thank Cathy Evans who has for some time been cleaning the church single-handedly. She now has so many commitments that she has to give this up.

From April there will be no-one to clean the church. Ideally the best is a couple of people together for company and speed though hopefully NOT just two overall. Several groups/pairs could share the load. Would you with or without a friend be willing to clean the church, perhaps once a month? or for one or two months in the year? It needs doing every week but if enough people volunteer this is not a great load. And remember "who sweeps a room, as for thy laws, makes that and the action fine" (Hymns Old and New number 466). In the first instance, please tell one of our churchwardens. – Meryl Gover

“The Peace of the Lord be with you, my friends in Christ”. This familiar greeting takes on added significance every Wednesday morning in St Cadfan’s, at our midweek Eucharist. Although attended by about eight people on average, it is a continuing reminder of the constant work and witness and fellowship of the church, which are not confined to Sunday mornings. Add in communion visits in the community and the various social happenings, such as Warmer Winter Wednesdays and Crafts for Giving, and we can see that life in St. Cadfan’s has many dimensions. The Wednesdays will resume after Easter as Welcome Wednesdays, as they have been much appreciated.

While there have been more funerals at St. Cadfan's, we have also had a baptism, and those who heard seven-year-old Logan Rickard tell how he loved God will remember how moved they were.

The developments as part of the Stones Shout Out and Llan Projects are slowly moving forward, and Phase One of the Heritage Lottery Fund application has been submitted. We have taken delivery of our new Labyrinth, and look forward to finding new ways of witness to the many visitors we get. Most seem to come the look at the Cadfan Stone, but we are seeking ways of piquing their interest beyond this. After all, Cadfan came here as a missionary! - Max Birchenough
